13. [redacted] Met with Mr. Francis McNamara, staff Director, HCUA, who advised that he had not yet heard from Mr. Leu, the Miami attorney handling affairs for [redacted] and that if he does not hear anything within the next few days, he will be calling Mr. Leu to arrange for a preliminary hearing between [redacted] and one of his staff people. Such a meeting would take place probably in March. The Committee's interest, in general, relates to travel of American groups to Cuba, Fair Play Cuba Committee, relations with Robert Williams (?), [redacted] contacts with American communists, Soviet troops and equipment, etc. The Committee will be pleased to insert any questions or topics desired by the Agency. Should such questions or topics fall outside the normal scope of Committee interest, they will be handled in executive session or private meeting with [redacted].
